The Bio

ABOUT THE BAND

Matteo Maclean and Katrina Lilly of The Freedom Family Band are musicians, song weavers, and community leaders. Their music touches hearts and their mission is rooted in integrity and community.

The space they hold is refreshingly authentic — raw humanness woven with ancient souls and celestial sounds. Their style is centered around profound lyricism, tight vocal harmonies, and inspired musical flow.

"Their raw humanness weaves so beautifully with their ancient souls and celestial sounds."

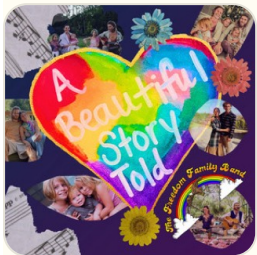

They have empowered and mentored hundreds of aspiring musicians through their online program, 1:1 coaching, prayerperformances, song circles, and the eight Free The Music

Gatherings. It's truly their life's work to inspire all people to express their music, art, and creative flow.
